ZOE DABISE

2 Senior year is unlike any other. Here are a few things you should know... It won't hit you when you wake up for your last first day of school. It won't hit you when you play your last powder puff game or go to your last homecoming. It won't hit you when you write your generic essay for your college applications. It won't hit you when your college friends come home for Christmas break and give you advice. You realize at graduation looking around at a room full of people that you will probably never see again. So in conclusion, make friends, not enemies. Make every part of your senior year count...

To my Best Friend Amanda, Thank you for being my partner in crime since sixth grade. Also, thank you for being my shoulder to cry on, lending me pens and pencils, and running to Starbucks at lunch frequently because I have a serious caffeine problem. I wouldn't have wanted to spend the past 7 years with anybody else. "Long live all the mountains we moved, I had the time of my life fighting dragons with you." - Taylor Swift

S/O TO PETER, JAVI, AND DECLAN. THANKS FOR KEEPING ME ENTERTAINED!

222 To my family, Thank you for your support through everything. To my sisters, thank you for teaching me how to love, hate, how to get over something compromising, and sharing skills. P.S. I am Mom and Dad's favorite - Zoe

S/O to Coach Kayla, Molitor, and Patzward
